

EQUITIES MARKET SUMMARY

The Nigerian equities market closed lower on Thursday as the NGX All-Share Index (ASI) declined by 0.37% to 242,227.31 points, while market capitalization fell by ₦580.65 billion to ₦155.36 trillion. Market activity weakened significantly, with trading volume dropping 36.24% to 588.46 million shares and transaction value declining 34.05% to ₦27.88 billion, reflecting cautious investor participation.

Sector performance was mixed, with the Industrial Goods (+0.56%), Consumer Goods (+0.53%), and Banking (+0.31%) indices posting gains, while the Food, Beverages & Tobacco (-0.03%) and Insurance (-0.58%) indices closed lower, as the Oil & Gas sector (-4.90%) emerged as the worst performer amid heavy sell-offs in major energy stocks.

ACCESSCORP emerged as the most traded stock with 109.72 million shares, followed by FCMB (34.60 million shares), NGXGROUP (28.05 million shares), ZENITHBANK (26.94 million shares), and STERLINGNG (22.49 million shares). Banking stocks continued to dominate trading volumes despite subdued price movements.

Market sentiment remained cautious as declining volumes and broad market weakness suggest investors are adopting a selective approach. While losses in the Oil & Gas sector weighed heavily on the market, gains in the Banking, Consumer Goods, and Industrial Goods sectors indicate continued interest in fundamentally strong stocks. The market is expected to trade with a cautious bias in the near term, with investors focusing on corporate fundamentals, economic developments, and sector-specific opportunities.
